An exciting opportunity for young people who love drama!

Blackfriars Theatre in Boston is hosting a special event for students aged 14-19 on Thursday 20 November.

Before the evening performance of Macbeth, members of the Box Clever Theatre Company (the cast themselves!) will be leading a fun and practical Youth Drama Workshop focused on character work, confidence, and audition skills.

Students can bring along a monologue or duologue they're working on, or simply come ready to take part and explore new techniques. It's a brilliant opportunity to learn from real actors, gain tips for performing under pressure, and build stage confidence in a relaxed, supportive environment.

Workshop details:Time: 5pm – 6pm

Age group: 14-19 years

Cost: £5 (includes a free ticket to the evening performance of Macbeth)

After the workshop, students will stay to watch Box Clever's powerful one-hour production of Macbeth – a modern, high-energy version of Shakespeare's classic that's both accessible and inspiring for anyone studying GCSE or A-Level Drama or English.

Performance time: 7pm - 8pm

Venue: Blackfriars Arts Centre, Spain Lane, Boston PE21 6HP

This is a fantastic opportunity to see live theatre in action, work with professional actors, and gain confidence for future performances or auditions.

Subject: Macbeth at Blackfriars - workshops for students & CPD for teachers

Hi [Name],

I thought this might be of interest for both staff and students in the department.

Blackfriars Theatre in Boston is hosting Box Clever Theatre Company on Thursday 20 November, with two great opportunities linked to their evening performance of Macbeth:

🐾 1. Youth Drama Workshop (Ages 14–19)

Time: 5pm - 6pm

Cost: £5 (includes free ticket to the 7pm performance of Macbeth)

A relaxed, creative session led by members of the Macbeth cast, focused on character work, confidence, and audition material.

Students can bring along a monologue or duologue they're working on, or just come ready to take part. It's a brilliant chance to build confidence, gain feedback from professionals, and see Shakespeare brought to life on stage.

💢 2. Learn to Stage Fight – CPD for Teachers & Arts Professionals

Time: 5pm - 6.15pm

Cost: Complimentary when you buy a ticket for Macbeth

Run by the Macbeth director and Fight It Out founder, this practical session introduces safe, simple stage combat techniques inspired by the battle scenes in the play.

Perfect for teachers looking to refresh classroom practice, learn new skills, and add physical theatre techniques to their toolkit before watching the performance at 7pm.

Macbeth Performance

Time: 7pm - 8pm

Tickets: Adults £11 | Under 16s £7.50

Venue: Blackfriars Arts Centre, Spain Lane, Boston PE21 6HP

Box Clever's Macbeth is a high-energy, modern adaptation – perfect for GCSE and A-Level students or anyone teaching Shakespeare and looking for fresh inspiration.

"A great modern-day interpretation with excellent audience participation. The students benefited from seeing the actors bringing it to life."

Head of English, Bishop Young Community Academy

If you think your students or colleagues might be interested, bookings can be made directly at www.blackfriarstheatre.co.uk/boxclever.

It's such a great local opportunity for both staff and students to get hands-on with Shakespeare and live theatre.
